Parent with two young children

You are a parent with two pre-school children. You only have a small garden for them to play in.

Occasionally you meet up with a friend and her young child, who live in an upstairs flat. You both really need somewhere for your children to play as they grow up.

The park is nearby but it is neglected and not a pleasant place to be in.

Before the meeting, think about:

- What you would like for your children in the park?
- What other facilities would make your visit more enjoyable?
- What would encourage you to use the park more frequently?
- How the park could be made safer for young children to play?
